

Wells Maltings

SPRING 2019

THE SALTMARSH SERIES

Many think of the Saltmarsh Coast of North Norfolk as a place apart. But why is this coastline so special and unique? And what are the challenges and opportunities faced by those who live, work and visit?

Original watercolour artwork by Godfrey Sayers

Find out more during the new Saltmarsh Series – the second set of lectures, talks and debates about this very special part of Norfolk. This series is all about The Sea:

Thursday 17th January

Sea Play: Swimming, sailing, cruising, rowing, angling, adventuring, compatibility, capacity and other issues.

Thursday 21st February

Sea Safe: Protection, rescue and safety services. Facts and myths about the risks associated with rising sea levels.

Thursday 21st March

Trashing the Sea: Sea, beach and harbour pollution; issues and options.

Thursday 18th April

Sea Images: An exhibition of paintings and photographs, plus a panel discussion with leading artists and photographers on the challenges of painting and photographing the sea off the Saltmarsh Coast.

Thursday 16th May

The Glaven Ports, Part 2: The history of the ports and harbours of the Glaven estuary - Cley, Wiveton, Blakeney - since 1800.

All events start at 7pm: tickets £5.

Book in person at the Visitor Information Centre, through Wells Maltings
Box Office on 01328 839000 or online at: wellsmaltings.org.uk

Wells Maltings, Staithe Street, Wells-next-the-Sea, Norfolk, NR23 1AN